

Sales Representative - Victoria
Program: WCG Business Services

Posted: July 21, 2010

Competition #: SRVI0710

Temporary to Sept 30, 2010

WCG International HR Solutions is an award-winning, internationally recognized leader in customized workforce consulting and technology solutions. We have an immediate opening for an efficient, personable and exceptionally organized Sales Representative in our Victoria Support Centre.

The Sales Representative is responsible for marketing WCG International's training products and services to small business employers in British Columbia. This position will provide consultative support to employers interested in purchasing training, develop quotes and package pricing and assist employers with accessing government funding to support the purchase of training.

The successful candidate will be sales and marketing oriented with excellent customer service and relationship building skills. He/she will have strong verbal communication skills and the ability to work well independently. Prior experience in telephone sales including cold calling is considered an asset.

Please submit a cover letter and resume via email to hr@wcginternational.com to express your interest in this position. Please quote the competition number in your subject line. This competition will remain open until a candidate is selected.

Changing people's lives - one person, one job, one community at a time.
